Reclamation of Zones B & C

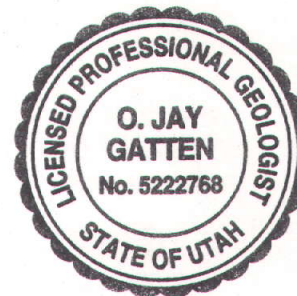

Dear Mr. Baker,

Recently I visited the Yellow Hammer site and observed the reclamation of the B Zone and C Zone. The area has been cleared of vehicle impacts and contoured. No debris, rubbish or contamination from equipment fluids was observed. Most of the vegetation was not disturbed and plant densities resemble the surrounding vegetation community. It is my opinion that minimal impact was done to the sites during exploration and that reclamation is complete.

Sincerely,

O. Jay Gatten
